JATI CHEED

WHO I AM

I'm Jati Cheed, a singer, recording artist, entertainer and host based in Birmingham. I've been performing at weddings and celebrations for over 20 years, I've worked with numerous music producers, and I've taken my music to stages around the world.

WHAT I BRING

Bollywood, Panjabi, ghazals and modern hits, all sung live. I read the room, get the crowd involved and keep the energy where it needs to be, from a soft first dance to a packed dancefloor. As a host, I can also keep your event running smoothly from the first announcement to the last song.

HOW I WORK

I run a professional service with customer care at the heart of everything I do. Every booking starts with a consultation, so your setlist is built around you and your guests. I perform solo, as Shugal Mela with guitar and dholak, or as Jati Cheed and the band. I'm based in Birmingham and travel nationwide and internationally.
